

Personal Statement Review

You've got the numbers, the grades—now it's time for your story. To that challenge, we offer two rounds of essay review dedicated to crafting a memorable personal written statement.

Price: $750 USD

Tell the Tale

Behold the power of the personal statement—it's your chance to show the admissions committee who you are and why you're right for a career as a healthcare professional. What made you decide to pursue this path? Do you have a particular area of interest—perhaps one with a uniquely personal backstory?

Your coach, trained by one of the top admissions experts, offers the insight and knowledge to help you explore these questions: They'll assist you with brainstorming, content communication, and mechanics. Win-win!

Plugged In

Ninety days of access to our online portal keep you connected to your coach throughout the writing process. As a bonus, give your overall candidacy a boost with our exclusive interactive prep content.

Rush Review Option Available

Why wait? Get help faster! For an additional $100.00 our Personal Statement Review will be completed in 2 business days or less after submission.
